

Introduction to Eventide

with Research Analyst, Faina Rozental

About Eventide

Eventide Asset Management, LLC is a Boston-based investment adviser practicing “investing that makes the world rejoice®.” Founded in 2008 and inspired by a biblical worldview, Eventide strives to serve individuals, financial advisors, and institutions by providing high-performance investments that create compelling value for the global common good.

Event Information

Faina Rozental (Sloan MBA '19) serves as Research Analyst, where she is primarily responsible for evaluating and monitoring new and existing investment opportunities in Eventide’s portfolios. She will be giving students an introduction to what it’s to work at Eventide Asset Management and go deeper on the company’s unique values-based investment philosophy and Business 360 framework for investing.

Date

November 13, 2023

Time

11:45AM

Location

Sloan Campus

This presentation will be provided for informational purposes only and expresses the views of the speaker.